Bengaluru, July 11, 2019: House of Hiranandani, a leading real estate conglomerate, developing iconic integrated communities in India, presents Calgary tower comprising luxurious ready- to- move apartments at Devanahalli Township, a 76 acre development in North Bengaluru. The gated community project with neo-classical architecture offers 2, 2.5 and 3 BHK opulent apartments, elegantly created keeping in mind the expectations of the modern home buyer. The project is bundled with an irresistible offer of 10:90 payment scheme for 2 BHK apartments, thus enabling every discerning home buyer realize their dream of buying a home with ease and flexibility.

Mr.Prashin Jhobalia, Vice President - Marketing Strategy, House of Hiranandani said, “We are immensely proud to deliver a product that is conspicuous and peerless. The launch comes at the most appropriate time when market sentiments are setting right and the modern home buyers are looking for a ready and quality product from a trustworthy brand. An attractive payment scheme is sure to elevate the happiness quotient of the buyer.”

Located along the rapidly growing Bellary Highway, the township, an architectural marvel, stands apart with its Greco Roman architecture. Presence of finely tuned amenities at the grand sports club offers an active social life and community living experience that every modern buyer yearns for.

Despite being magnanimous, the towers provide ample serenity and privacy as they open up to the soothing and scintillating views of the Nandi Hills and beautiful landscapes. The innovative Fibre to the Home technology (FTTH) ensures uninterrupted flow of entertainment and communication. While the community is located at a distance from the hustle –bustle of the city, it still offers seamless connectivity to the prime and commercial hubs.

The Devanahalli Township by House of Hiranandani is an amalgamation of extravagance, solace, and style that provides a taste of luxury living to consumers. The cohesive development also includes palatial villas and magnificent cottages adept with lifestyle amenities, panoramic views coupled with a location that is only few minutes away from Central Business Districts and the Kempegowda International airport.
