

House of Hiranandani celebrates glittering lighting festival at its township in Chennai

Chennai, October 30, 2019: As part of Diwali celebrations, House of Hiranandani, a pioneer in developing integrated communities celebrated a lighting festival at its Egattur Township in Chennai. The magnificent towers of the township glowed in a sea of light in night sky as hundreds of balloons were released into the sky on October 27. The lighting and balloons served as a feast to the spectators and added to the celebratory mood of the community.

The celebrations included a lighting fiesta where the township was illuminated with colourful bright lights from October 26 - 30, 2019. This was probably the first of its kind event in Chennai which saw thousands of residents gather together to celebrate the festival with utmost delight and enthusiasm. The sparkling fest only added glitter to the skyline of Chennai that has been redefined by House of Hiranandani with its magnificent architecture and construction.

The self-sustained ecosystem of House of Hiranandani at Egattur is spread over 120 acres and provides a holistic living experience for residents. Strategically located on Old Mahabalipuram Road, opposite the SIPCOT IT park, it is easily accessible by road and rail, making it one of the most sought-after luxury residential projects in Chennai. It also provides unrestricted views of the Bay of Bengal from the apartments that elevates the experience of living here.
